Dismissal of Window Tint Citation: If you are charged with unlawful window tint and have this problem corrected within 10 working days from date the citation was issued, bring the vehicle to 302 W. Cotton St. for inspection by the Court. If the vehicle meets a lawful standard within 10 days, the defendant will pay $10 and the ticket will be dismissed.

Dismissals

Dismissal of No Valid Drivers License: If charged with no valid drivers license, please submit proof that you had a valid drivers license on the day the citation was issued within 10 days from the date of the citation and have the citation dismissed at no charge.

Dismissal of No Liability Insurance: If charged with no liability insurance or failure to maintain financial responsibility, please submit proof that you had valid liability insurance on the date and at the time that the citation was issued to have the citation dismissed at no charge. The insurance proof must have effective and expiration dates, name of the insured, policy number and name of insurance company. All proof will be verified.

Teen Court: Juveniles may have their case referred to Teen Court upon making a plea of guilty. A non-refundable fee is charged. The case is then heard for sentencing only in the Teen Court process. The defendant is sentenced to community service hours and terms by the Teen Court jury. Once the requirements are met, the case is dismissed.
